

Exceptional Employee - Non-Clinical

Nominee Name: Brandon Sanders

Organization: Salina Family Healthcare Center

Nominated by: Sam Reddy

Approved by Service Excellence Council?  YES

What makes this individual an exceptional non-clinical employee?

Criteria to keep in mind as you craft your answer (provide examples):

- Daily performance that stands out above other employees
- Things that make them the "very best of the best"
- Behaviors that distinguish them from other employees
- Transformative effect on the life of the organization
- Positive role model for peers
- Impact on improving employee morale and the culture of the organization
- Improve community perception of organization
- How they go "above and beyond"

Submission must be at least 250 words in length.

Content should stand on its own to support the nomination.

I am honored to nominate Brandon for recognition because he truly embodies what it means to be a self-motivated and dependable leader. Brandon consistently gets tasks done quickly and efficiently, and he approaches every challenge with an innovative mindset, always looking for creative solutions rather than settling for the simplest answer.

This past year, Brandon has made remarkable strides in his role as a Service Excellence Advisor. Initially a bit reserved, he has broken out of his shell and really stepped into his own as a leader. He has taken the initiative to not only meet expectations but exceed them, offering support, guidance, and encouragement to those around him. One of his greatest strengths is his ability to teach his peers—he doesn't just do the work, he shares his knowledge so that others can grow and succeed alongside him.

Brandon is also the go-to person for any IT issues that arise. His deep knowledge base and natural troubleshooting skills have proven invaluable, often saving time and frustration for staff. He steps in willingly to help with technical challenges and finds solutions that keep the workflow moving smoothly.

Through his hard work, growth, and willingness to lend a hand, Brandon has become an integral part of our team. He is not only an innovative problem-solver but also a dependable colleague who lifts up those around him. Brandon's contributions have made a lasting impact, and he is incredibly deserving of recognition for his dedication and leadership.

Once approved by your Service Excellence Council, this nomination (along with a photo the nominee would be proud to have displayed) must be submitted through our awards website at www.HCSEawards.com. No handwritten entries will be accepted.

